

From Political Activism to Cultural Activism

Public Lecture

Thursday, December 1 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Friends House
60 Lowther Avenue

$15 General / $10 Seniors & Students

Will selfishness and greed lead to the destruction of our planet or will we learn new ways of being in time to save ourselves?

Luigi Morelli, researcher, cultural activist and author of A Revolution of Hope: Spirituality, Cultural Renewal and Social Change is tracking a deep shift already underway in modern consciousness that holds the seeds of our survival. By adding cultural activism to political activism we can foster this emerging, creative potential.

