

REVISED, RELAXED Foundation Studies in Anthroposophy program

with study of five books over two years, instead of the 100 hour over ten-month program announced a short while ago. This is actually a benefit, as it will allow for more internal incubation of the reading over time.

1st gathering - 9:45 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. at the SSWS on Saturday, Sept. 10.
(Note the slightly shorter day than previously announced. Lunch from 12:30-1:30 p.m.)

Sessions will continue once a month, on Saturdays, for a total of ten sessions from September '16 to June '17. During this time, we will read three of RS's books:
Education of the Child, Theosophy, and How to Know Higher Worlds.

Each Saturday will feature morning small-group artistic and social exercises with discussion, together with afternoon workshops, often by varied Guest Faculty.

If all goes well, the following year will be allocated to a study of the other two works: Philosophy of Spiritual Activity and Occult Science.

There is definite interest in the stimulating field of anthroposophy introduced a century ago by Rudolf Steiner; it is worth finding the right parameters to allow it to continue to unfold in a healthy way. Please let me know ASAP if you are able to join in this new schedule.

Cost for the year is $500, for a minimum of 4 participants.
