

Anthroposophical Society in Canada

March 23, 2018

Dear Friends,

Warm greetings. Our Annual General Meeting and Conference is in Thornhill, Ontario this year, and we look forward to seeing many of you there. We appreciate the interest taken by members in the business affairs of the Society, and also welcome the opportunity to meet each other in person.

There are funds available for help with travel expenses and should you need help please, contact the administrator, (info@anthroposophy.ca). Please remember to bring your pink card. Only members in good standing (those who have contributed membership fees, or made financial arrangements with the administrator by May 18th) can take part in decisions.

We are proposing the names of five Council members to serve for the coming year, May 2018 to May 2019. Current Councillors have agreed to stand again: Dorothy LeBaron for President, John Glanzer as Treasurer and Micah Edelstein for the office of Secretary. We are proposing Susan Koppersmith as the new Council member from British Columbia, and Claudette Leblanc from Quebec.

Please refer to our bylaws to see how Councillors are nominated.

The AGM Draft Minutes from 2017 are posted on the members website, www.anthroposophy.ca, under Membership, Members' Area, under "Documents and Archives." You can log in using the password ASC. Reviewed financial statements, and proposed budget are posted on our website.

The Council is proposing two items concerning our by-laws. One a new by-law, the other an amendment to a current one. Please read the attached document concerning this.

We invite members to communicate with us, in advance of the meeting, about any concerns or questions they may carry about our work together in the Society. Time will be allotted for such concerns or questions at the end of the business part of the meeting.

Warmly,

Dorothy LeBaron,
President, on behalf of the Council
