Christine Gruwez studied philosophy and linguistics at the KU Leuven, the Catholic University in Louvain, Belgium. She met Anthroposophy through the Waldorf School in Antwerp, which her four children attended, and where she taught from 1976 to 1986. She also taught for a decade in the Waldorf Education Training Program. Since 1997, Christine has led seminars and conferences at Emerson College, at the Goetheanum, in Europe, Asia and the US.

Synopsis of the Presentation

The Word, which is also called the 'Logos' in the Prologue of John, represents the divine creative force that is resounding in the cosmic realm and in the soul of all human beings. It is this force that allows us to connect and to speak, the way the Word has spoken in the Beginning and still does. It is this Being who says to every human being: 'I am' so that 'you are'.
